Principal's Message

The theme from Circle Lane selected by the Class of 1976 is most appropriate, for during these formative years much credit is given to young idealists who not only dream but are conspicuous in fulfilling their dreams. As we look back at the pleasant moments that happened during our formative years, we must also remember that we have been preparing ourselves to effect a better future.

During this Bicentennial Year, we have been focusing our attention with pride on our past and as I consider the potential of your class, I have great Faith in your Future.

THE CIRCLE

Yesterday a child came out to wonder
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star

Then the child moved ten times 'round the seasons
Skated over ten clear frozen streams
Words like, when you're older, must appease him
And promises of someday make his dreams.

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now
Cartwheels turn to carwheels thru the town
And they tell him, take your time, it won't be long now
Till you drag your feet to slow the circles down.

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty
Though his dreams have lost some grandeur coming true,
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through.

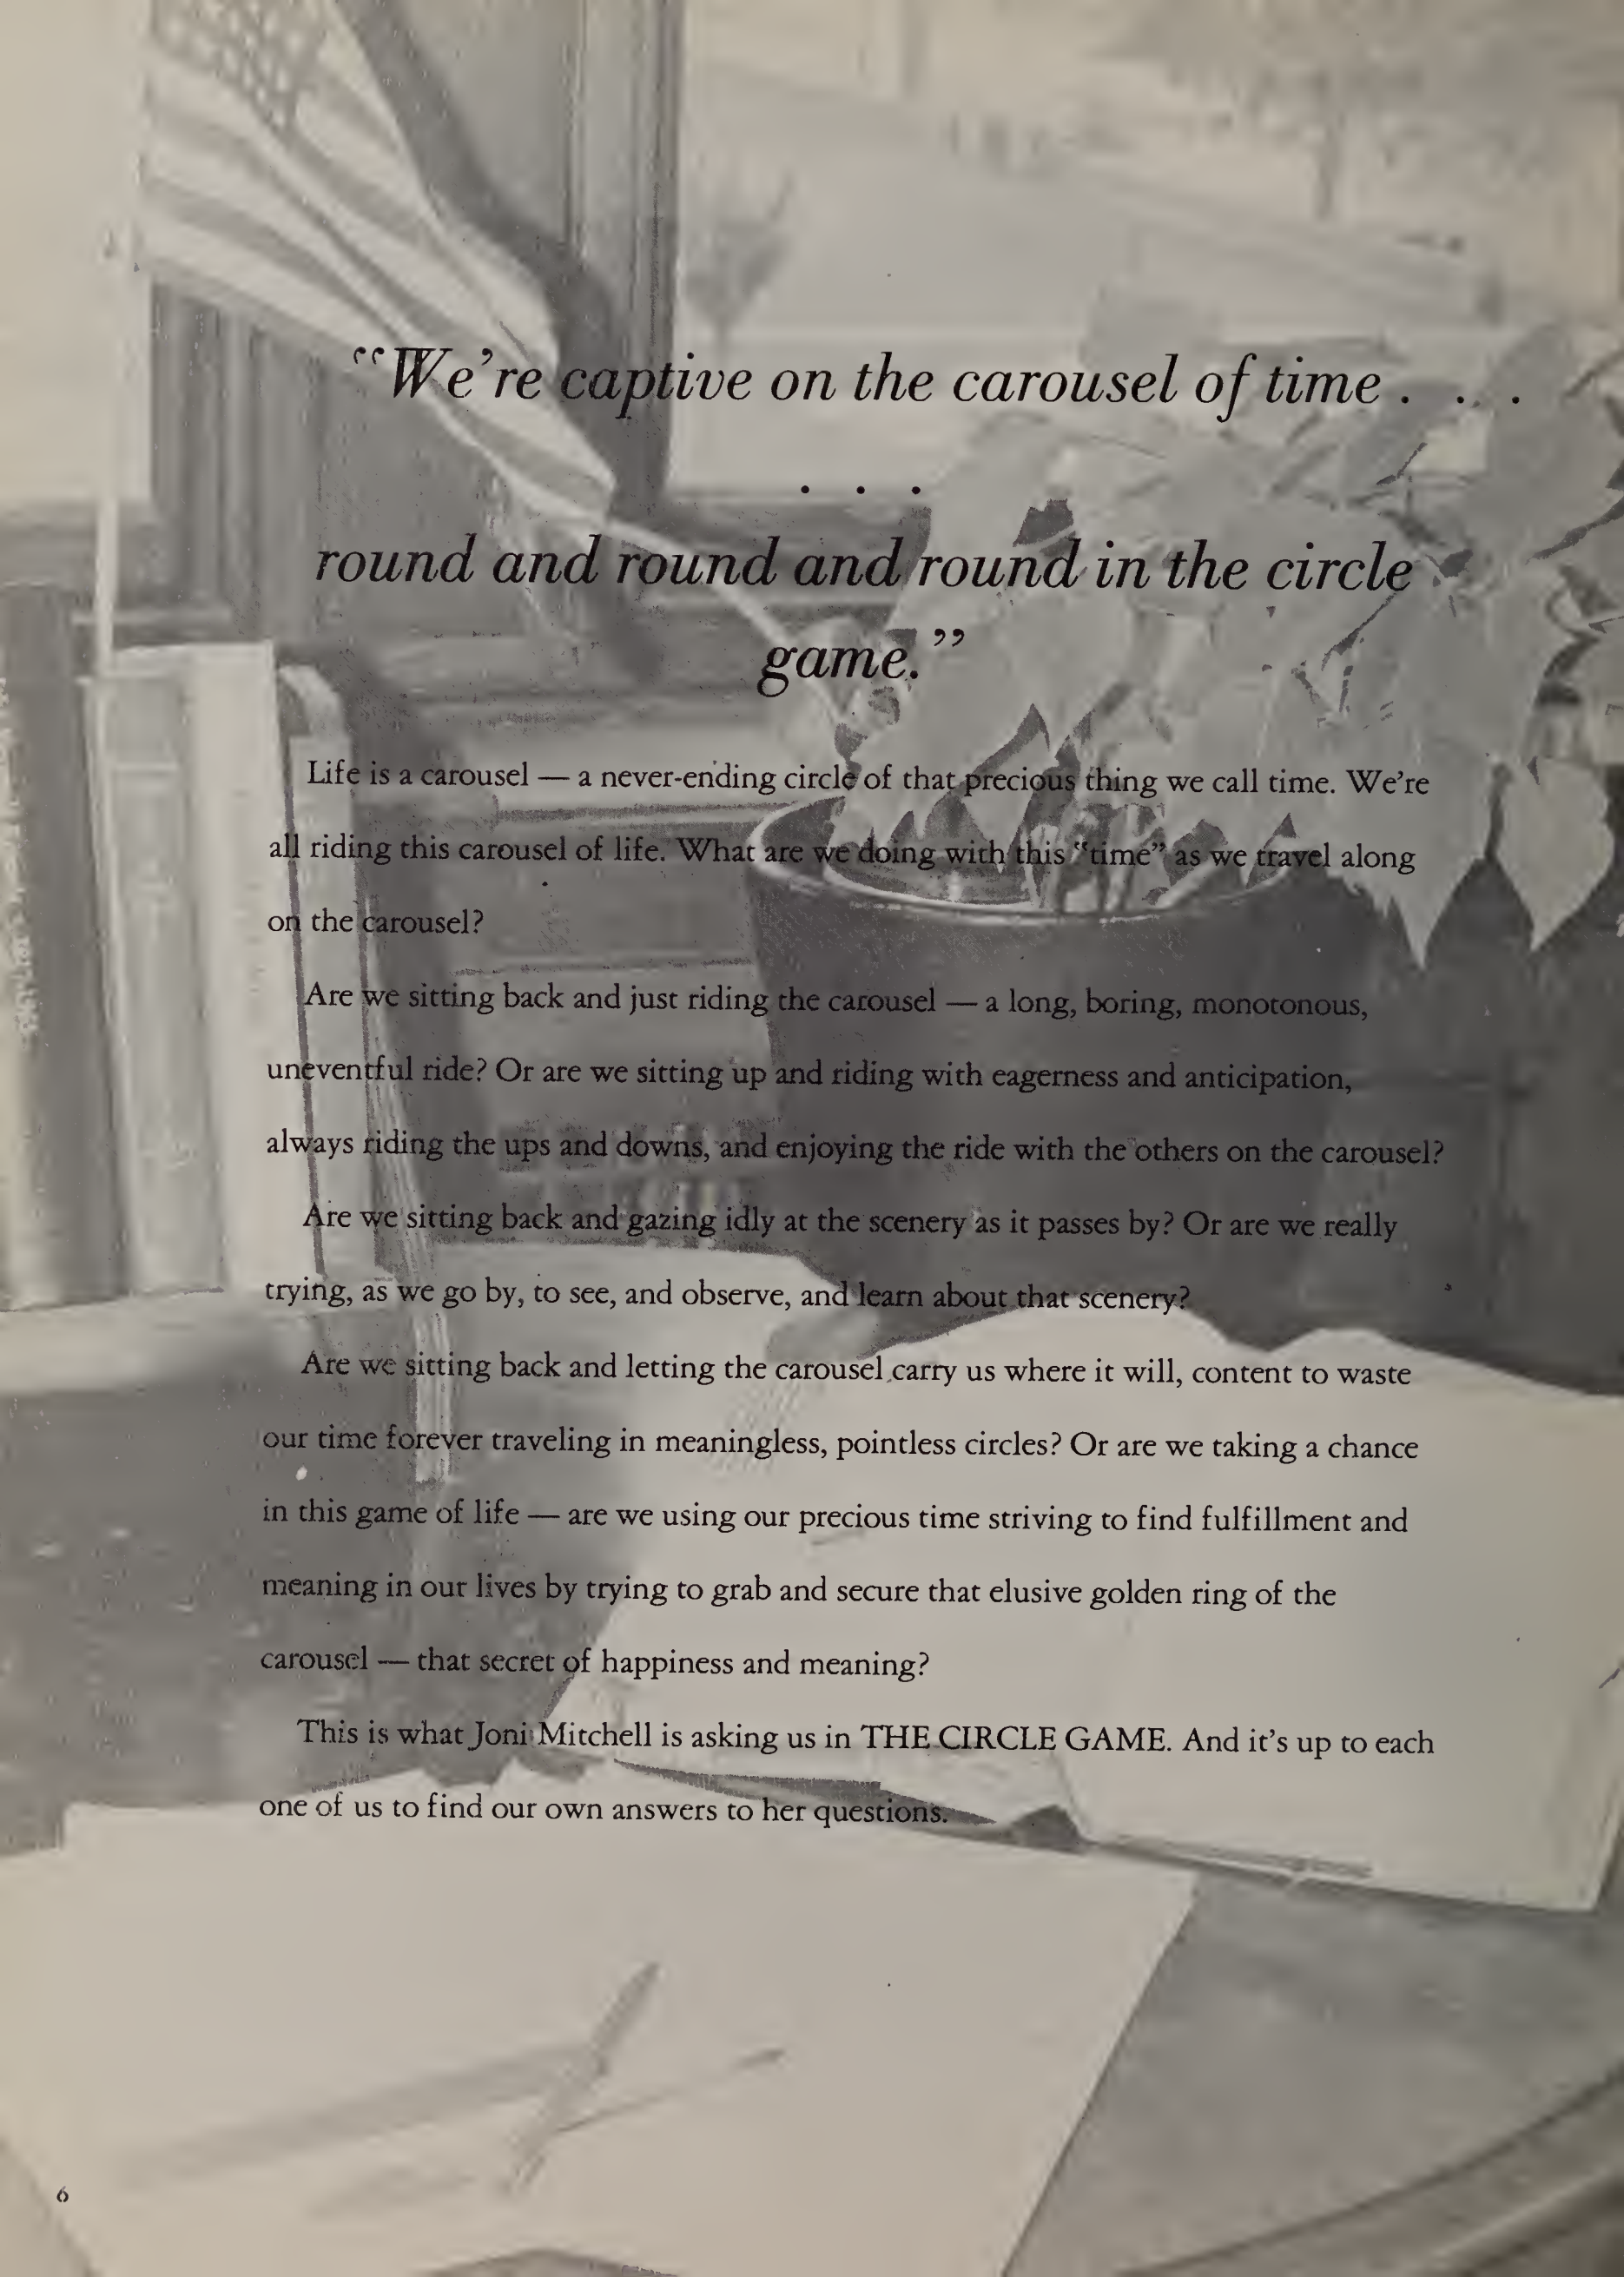

GAME

And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down
We're captive on a carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game.

-Joni Mitchell

*“We’re captive on the carousel of time round and round and round in the circle
game.”*

Life is a carousel — a never-ending circle of that precious thing we call time. We’re all riding this carousel of life. What are we doing with this “time” as we travel along on the carousel?

Are we sitting back and just riding the carousel — a long, boring, monotonous, uneventful ride? Or are we sitting up and riding with eagerness and anticipation, always riding the ups and downs, and enjoying the ride with the others on the carousel?

Are we sitting back and gazing idly at the scenery as it passes by? Or are we really trying, as we go by, to see, and observe, and learn about that scenery?

Are we sitting back and letting the carousel carry us where it will, content to waste our time forever traveling in meaningless, pointless circles? Or are we taking a chance in this game of life — are we using our precious time striving to find fulfillment and meaning in our lives by trying to grab and secure that elusive golden ring of the carousel — that secret of happiness and meaning?

This is what Joni Mitchell is asking us in THE CIRCLE GAME. And it’s up to each one of us to find our own answers to her questions.

Dedication

When an author writes a book, he dedicates it to the person or persons who've helped him the most while he was writing the book. We, as Seniors, are not only the characters of this book, but we are also the authors. So, why don't we, as authors and as individuals, dedicate this book to those people who have done the most for us during our three years at FHS? Why don't we dedicate this book to our FRIENDS? Can't we all think of a special friend or friends we'd like to say "Thank you" to? Think back and remember those little things. Remember lending homework papers, and laughing at each other's jokes? And remember those late nights together, cramming for a test, or frantically typing up a term paper?

We've helped each other every step of the way. What about those other times — those times when we sat together quietly, and talked — frankly and earnestly — about ourselves, our future, our lives? We've shared so much — our confidence, our trust, our hope, our thoughts, and our feelings — we've shared ourselves. We've helped each other to learn and to grow. We've helped each other to reach the last chapter of this book together. So, as authors of our book, let's each of us dedicate this part of our lives to ourselves — to our friends — to each other.

HOMECOMING WEEK

The week of October 27th to November 1st, 1975, was a special one at FHS. Our Homecoming week's events began as we held the first annual Fifties Day on Friday. Our football team's 35-12 victory over Dighton-Rehoboth highlighted the week, and set the stage for the Homecoming Dance that night. The end of a memorable week was climaxed when the Court was announced, and Jessica Diggle crowned Queen and Lynne Healy her Lady-in-Waiting.

What Is a Junior?

"Being a Junior is like being a sandwich. There is something above you and something below you. But it's great to know that you're in the middle and being in the middle makes you the main and best part."

"Being a Junior means growing older, accepting more responsibilities, and gaining knowledge."

"The hardest year of work, but the best year to party!"

"Being a Junior means that I belong to one of the best classes that has ever come out of FHS."

"I'm not gonna get out of here for another whole year."

"Extra work."

"One year gone, one year to go, and a year to think about."

"Being a Junior means security. There's no fear of having to leave FHS in June, unprepared to handle problems which may arise, because we still have another whole year left. We have security from our teachers, counselors, and even from our friends. Our education will stay with us, but some of our best friends will be gone forever when we leave."

"It's a growing time when we realize that we had better make some decisions about what we want to do in the future."

"Being in school is like climbing a ladder. Being a Junior is having one more step to climb until we reach the peak of our high school years."

"Being a Junior means having to wait another year for all the good times it looks like the Seniors are having."

"The fact that I'm a Junior means I'm right in the middle of things — not entirely inexperienced, but not quite ready to face the world."

"Being a Junior is being a part of something special. The Junior Prom, Junior Day, and looking ahead and realizing that Senior year isn't far away."

SENIORS

“There’ll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty.”

*JUNIOR DAY
1975*

John Hennessy accepts the class mantle.

Junior Day — a tradition at Fairhaven High School. A day of watery eyes, happy smiles, and unforgettable memories — and a day of symbolism. Walking slowly into the Larch Avenue Auditorium, the boys were dressed in sport suits, and the girls wore white dresses and carried budding yellow roses — white to symbolize our youth, and roses to represent our growth into adulthood. After the presentation of the Honor Awards, the final symbol came as our Junior class president John Hennessy received the class mantle — our Senior Year, our last year, our year of responsibilities and distinction, had begun.

Susan Murray receives the College Club Award.

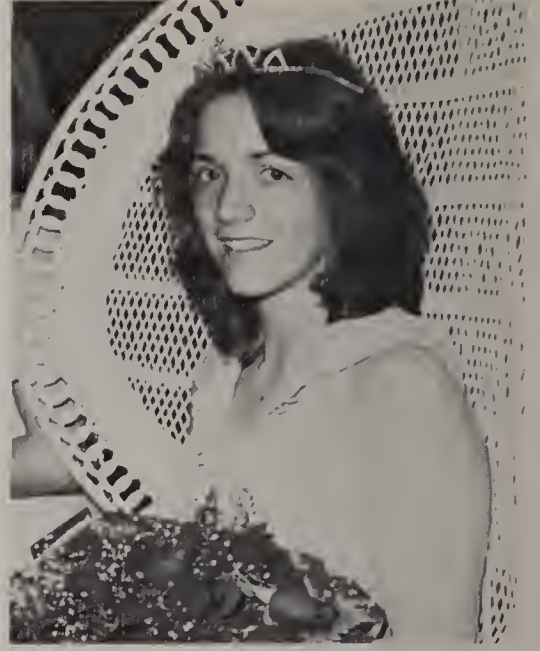

Sue Murray is presented with the Mabel Hoyle Knipe Award.

Bill O'Mara is the recipient of the Harvard Book Club Award.

“ . . . it's just a sprinkling for the May Queen . . . ”

Junior Prom

May 2, 1975: a moment we'd all been looking forward to — our Junior Prom. Couples danced to the music of “Moonshine” under the pastel blue streamers and softly glittering stars which bedecked our Larch Avenue Auditorium. Our anticipation and suspense ended when Class President John Hennessey proclaimed Debbie Costa Queen and Lynne Healy Lady-in-Waiting. Afterwards, all the couples joined the happy Queen and her escort Dave Evans in dancing to “Stairway to Heaven,” the theme song of our Prom.

“ . . . and the forests will echo with laughter.”

“ . . . and a new day will dawn for those who stand long . . . ”

Class History

There were days that flew by too fast, and ones that went too slowly as we waited in anticipation for the final years. They were the days which escorted us from childhood to adulthood, and left us on the threshold of tomorrow.

Cocky and proud, we trudged our way through IVANHOE, THE ODYSSEY, and boring grammar assignments. We tried to hurry the days, not realizing that later on, these sluggish days would all be gone. Dreams, laughter, and championship basketball and football games filled our lives. We were haughty, sure of ourselves — but our swollen pride was quickly shattered as we began our humble year at the High School.

Orientation Day, confusing and painful, eventually gave way to routine as we were “accepted.” Biology labs, vacations, and cookbook sales brought us to Junior Day '74, when, as bewildered Sophomores, we watched in wonderment as tearful Seniors departed.

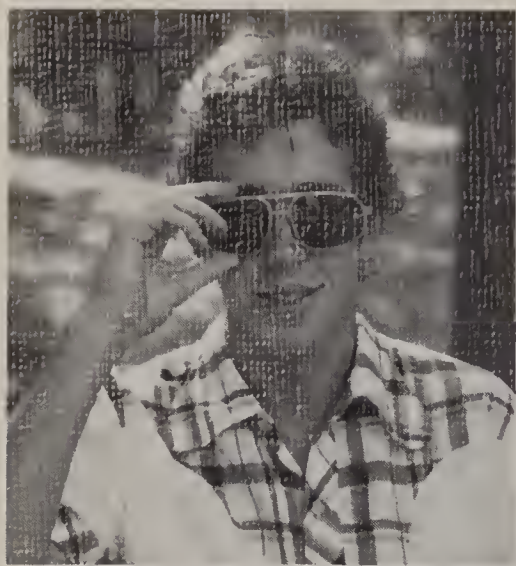

Junior Year brought more prestige and honor. We flaunted our rings; we wondered about Prom dates; suddenly, Junior Day was upon us. Mixtures of sadness, fear, anticipation, and excitement filled the air as we accepted our roles as Seniors — this time watching thoughtfully as the Seniors departed, knowing we were next but not yet fully understanding the tears.

The summertime was filled with hazy thoughts of tomorrow. Colleges and careers became the topic of every conversation. We were afraid; yet, we were happy, and filled with experiences of love and joys of true friendship. The future was advancing too quickly. Life was reaching out, ready to seize us with one great sweep as we moved through our final year. One day we prayed for graduation; the next we wondered if we were ready. Sometimes we couldn't wait to be “free,” to be adults; other times we wished the secure, quiet little world of the High School could last just a little longer.

Too tough to be down, we filled our last year with laughter. Antics in the classroom, the Senior play *M*A*S*H*, our yearbook, and acceptances at colleges all caused such a whirlwind of turmoil — and the days slipped through our hands.

The time had come — we must leave, finally prepared and filled with unforgettable memories.

Graduation. The children had grown. Life and love were ours. The world stood at our fingertips, waiting for each of us to snatch up our own small piece. Amid pats on the back, kisses on the cheek, proud parents, and joy in the air, we, tearful blue-and-white clad figures, marched in beat to the music, finally. Walking slowly, one by one, we received the precious blue folders. The final separation came. We accepted the huge challenges lying before us — we reached up, with trembling hands, and moved the dangling tassel to the other side.

Our American Field Service student, Roberto André Schelp, arrived in August, 1975, from his hometown of Santa Maria, Brazil, and is spending this year with the Walter White family of 815 Middle Rd., Acushnet.

Among the many things in America that Roberto claims are quite different from those in Brazil are the seasons, and the changeable New England weather. He will never forget seeing his first snowfall, and throwing his first snowball — at his "brother," Mark White!

We will always remember Roberto's portrayal of Private Lopez in M*A*S*H, and his famous line, "I don't beleeve eet!!" And what M*A*S*H cast member can forget his "speeches" at Barbero's after the play!

We hope Roberto enjoys his stay in the U.S.; and, to this personable Brazilian with the great sense of humor, we all wish the best of luck in the future.

Class Will

MAUREEN, ANN, DEBBIE, WENDY, JANET, and LYNNE leave their summer camping trips at Miles Standish to whoever can eat raw hotdogs.

THE LUNCH BUNCH leaves a pile of unswept crumbs on the Art room floor.

EGGY leaves the cage, Mr. Entin, and Mr. Bender to Jeffrey Canastra.

STEVE FOSTER leaves his football superstitions to Spanky.

KATHY LOPES leaves the boys' Track Team to Anne Suddy.

The SENIORS leave the Circle, the Lot, the Fort, and the Wall . . . but will return next year.

RICHIE PEASE leaves cracking himself up.

THE "RAT" leaves "POODIE" forever.

JANET HAYDON leaves her puns to Ginny Lawton and nothing to Cathy Bernard.

The 1975 FOOTBALL TEAM leaves its 8-1 season to next year's team, to strive for a perfect 9-0 season; in other words . . . beat the ____ out of Dartmouth.

ANN, KRISTIN, LAURIE, and LYNNE leave their trips to U. Mass to anyone with "nothing better to do."

The FIELD HOCKEY TEAM leaves "Joey" running.

The M.A.S.H. CAST and CREW leave Miss Richards to work with next year's cast and crew.

STEPHANIE leaves her Chemistry class full of boys to anyone who can handle them as well as she did.

CELESTE MARIEN leaves her math problems to her sister . . . but, she's keeping the calculator.

WENDY LANGLOIS leaves the Guidance Office in Mrs. Paiva's capable hands; BRENDA GOMES does likewise — leaving the Main Office to Esther.

JOAN GRINROD leaves the job of managing to any unsuspecting underclassman.

The FRENCH CLUB leaves Mr. Dufour "les pictures indiscrete" of the Quebec trip in '75.

ANN CATALDO leaves, accidentally forgetting about her Psychology class.

SHARON METHENY leaves listening to echoes of "Shut up, Sharon" from the Murray twins.

ROSEMARY KEIGHLEY leaves the yearbook Business Department to anyone who can handle it.

The SENIORS on the Girls' Basketball Team leave running laps.

LINDA, NANCY, and RICH leave Mr. Pierce one last "Good Morning."

The A.V. CLUB leaves Mr. Barriteau saying "If you're not A.V. — Keep moving!"

KRIS, LAURIE, JANET, STEF, ANN, and SUE leave all their GREAT times at concerts to any group of Juniors that can afford the outrageous ticket prices.

TERRY FLAVIN leaves her Eastern philosophies to whoever can accept them.

DEBBIE ALBINO leaves her decorating bags to Mrs. Pursley.

PAUL ROUSSEAU leaves his cellar, his beer-stained ping-pong table, and his broken down pool table to his sister Janice, to carry on the tradition of partying — provided he is invited.

ANNE POUNDS leaves her talent of cutting in the lunch line to anyone dumb enough to stay in the back and wait.

LYNNE and JANET leave their absenteeism to whoever thinks they can con their mother into letting them stay home so often.

MATH 12A leaves Mr. Malcolm alone.

RAY CANASTRA leaves his Number 2 locker and his "Brut" to Scott Young.

The LADIES OF THE GYM leave their seats on the bench to anyone who can manage to have all three lunch shifts.

SARA LAMARRE leaves her good times before school and her aftersessions for being late to Terry Ducary.

For Mrs. Tenczar, ANN and KRIS leave the locker room quiet.

THE SENIOR CLASS leaves knowing that their float was really Number One.

THE SENIOR CLASS leaves!!!

We can't return, we can only look behind and remember . . .

- . . . Staying home from school to watch "Happy Days"!
- . . . Selling M&Ms at skyrocketed inflation
- . . . Cathay Temple after the Junior Prom
- . . . Paul Rousseau's cellar on Saturday nights
- . . . Lunch breaks at Friendly's and Burger Chef!
- . . . Tedious homework assignments
- . . . Identifying oranges by the types of their skins
- . . . Mr. Entin's Biology classes with Mr. Joe Bones Skeleton
- . . . Mr. Malcolm's 6 tests in 12 days, and — "get those calculators moving"
- . . . Kathy Fleurent's skating parties
- . . . Those 9th grade Honor Society studies with TVs, gymnastic contests, and paper airplanes zooming all over the place
- . . . Rehearsing for the Senior Play
- . . . Where the Junior Float sheet went — and does anyone remember what was written on it!
- . . . Mr. Dufour's "histoires vrais," and his "la morale de cette histoire"
- . . . Mr. Haaland's crazy Physics classes — his student-proof voltmeter, the many experiments he attempted to do, and those tedious labs
- . . . Junior Day '75!
- . . . The brilliant array of umbrellas that blocked the view of those trying to see the '75 Thanksgiving Day Game!
- . . . The "Three Stooges"!
- . . . The Chicago/Beach Boys Concert in June of '75!
- . . . Running 440's for Mr. Bender
- . . . Pease at football camp
- . . . 50's Day!
- . . . Fights with the fire extinguisher during lunch
- . . . The dueling swords
- . . . Stephanie's many moons
- . . . The Hustle Line on the Division III hockey championship team in '74-'75!
- . . . That undefeated Freshman football team, when only one touchdown was scored against us all season!
- . . . Decorating cars and waking up the residents of Green St. on Junior Day in '75!
- . . . Trying to finish the yearbook on that last impossible weekend, when almost EVERYTHING was against us!!
- . . . Right after 2nd term, when Senioritis and Spring Fever attacked us all at the same time!!!
- . . . The laughs, the joking around, the silliness, and most of all, the FUN!
- . . . The good with the bad, the happy and the sad, the memorable — and those other times we sometimes wish we could forget!

For the past 32 years Louise Dennie has been working for the town of Fairhaven as a school nurse. During her first few years her job entailed the health needs of the students and school professional staff townwide. Eventually she became Fairhaven High's "own" nurse — not only caring for all the students and her faculty friends, but helping out in the office as well. Mrs. Dennie has done a fine job — and now she is going to leave us.

And so, as the last Senior class to know Mrs. Dennie, we would like to thank her for all she has done. We are grateful for all the help, and time, and care you've given us, Mrs. Dennie. We wish for you much happiness and peace in all your future endeavors

Remember, do you remember the laughter, the tears, the accomplishments, the frustrations, the triumphs . . .

Memories may be beautiful, yet too painful to remember

Cast away our fears — and all the years will come and go

I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile - yet, it's the laughter we will remember ...

THE TIMES WE USED TO SHARE

Peace, like the silent dove — can it be it was all so simple then.

Misty water colored memories — of the way we were

*. . . Though our dreams have lost some grandeur coming true —
We may never pass this way again
Memories, to be forever treasured will be ours ALWAYS.*

SPECIAL THANKS TO . . .

Mrs. Janice Randall for her proofreading, suggestions, and time.
Mr. Arnie Lohmann for his patience and support.
Mr. Grabiec and Mr. Albritton for their help and advice.
Mr. Pierce for his photos.
Marie Larocque and Chris Murray for helping with the typing.
Sharon Metheny for writing the Class History.
Teresa Flavin for her work on the Honors page.

PATRONS

“Before the last revolving year is through . . .

*We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams
Wandering by lone sea breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams;
World losers and world forsakers,
Of whom the pale moon gleams;
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.*
